

We are delighted to join forces with Science Fiction Foundation yet again for a day of celebration.

Our mini convention is open to the public and free to attend and will feature panels and interviews with special guests.

SFF's special guest is the extremely knowledgeable Rob Hansen, author of Then, a study of science fiction fandom in the UK from 1930-1980.

BSFA's special guest is Emma Newman, the amazing author of science fiction and urban fantasy whose novels include the Split Worlds series, Planetfall, After Atlas (which was nominated for the Arthur C. Clarke Award) and Before Mars.

Also joining us will be Peter Newman, author of the Vagrant series, of which The Vagrant won the David Gemmell Morningstar Award for best debut in 2016.

Together of course, Emma Newman and Peter Newman have won a Hugo for best Fancast for their divine Tea and Jeopardy podcast.

Please note the changed time for the event this Saturday. The venue is not open until 11.

This is due to a mix-up at the venue and available staffing, for which we apologise. Early arrivers who wish for somewhere to congregate may wish to avail themselves of one of the nearby cafes. We suggest Caffè Nero, 186 Clapham High St, which is approximately 8 minutes' walk away.

AGM time for SFF remains unchanged at 12 noon. For BSFA we will be running our AGM at 1.30 to give attendees of both AGMS a chance to grab a break.
